

MINDSET MILLENNIAL

Adapt • Relate • Connect

ADVANCE Your Workforce

According to data from Source Global Research, companies will pay $60-70 million to integrate millennials into the workforce next year. Millennials appear especially vulnerable because of what is perceived as a lack of interpersonal skills, motivation, and sense of purpose. Mindset Millennial motivates your team to embrace generational perspectives and improve your organization's relationship dynamics.

LEARNED SKILLS:

- Identify employee passions to expand skill sets
- Strengthen critical thinking and interpersonal skills to execute preferred strategies
- Demonstrate behavioral awareness to change habits
- Embrace generational perspectives to foster team-building and trust
- Initiate and receive feedback to foster communication and encourage confidence
- Utilize reverse mentoring to cement teamwork
- Recognize the strengths of each generation to support the growth and success of the others

WORKSHOP DELIVERABLES:

- Techniques for Communicating, Aligning, and Developing Employees of All Ages
- Improved Company Culture
- Boosted Productivity
- More Passionate and Loyal Team
- Reduced Turnover
- Increased Teamwork
- Communication Templates
- Feedback Strategies
- Situational Best Practices
- Effective Motivators

Strengthen Connections and Maximize Potential

Mindset Millennial has distinct program options for company leaders only, millennials only, with a combination of both. Company leaders are trained to empower and support millennials as they embrace additional responsibility and strive to improve their habits. Millennials are excited to demonstrate their desire and proactively contribute to company goals, growth, and culture. MindsetGo trainers engage participants in workplace simulations, role plays, fun group activities, and team-building exercises.

“ I met Mark after participating in his Mindset Millennial program and I was blown away at how he inspires and motivates people of all ages. His passion for coaching was evident with both millennials and top level executives.”

– Brandon F, Millennial
